Reinhard, Graue Chair Juries at NAPEX 2010

Stephen Reinhard and James Graue will head the exhibition juries at NAPEX 2010, the Washington, D.C.-area stamp show, June 4-6, 2010, in McLean, Va.

Reinhard's panel for the stamp and cover exhibits also will include Pat Walters of New Jersey, Alfredo Frohlich of Florida, David Herendeen of Nevada and William Schultz of Pennsylvania. Reinhard, of New York, is also chairman of the American Philatelic Society's Committee on Accreditation of National Exhibitions & Judges.

Graue, of Washington, will be chief judge for the literature competition. His colleagues on that jury will be Peter Martin of Connecticut and Guy Dillaway of Massachusetts.

NAPEX is a World Series of Philately show, one of about 30 "national" shows, and features not only a competitive exhibition of multi-frame stamp and cover exhibits, but also single-frame and literature competitions. In addition, NAPEX 2010 also will offer the second NAPEX single-frame "Alphabet Challenge," in which all the subjects of all exhibits must start with the letter "J."

The winner of the multi-frame philatelic exhibition will receive a Waterford Biscuit Barrel worth approximately $450. As an added incentive for exhibiting at NAPEX, the show will pay the Grand Award winner's entry fee into the annual Champion of Champions competition at APS STAMPSHOW 2010 in Richmond, Va., in August, and the single-frame winner's fee for the Single Frame Champion of Champions competition at AmeriStamp Expo 2011 in Charleston, S.C.

Three national stamp societies — American Air Mail Society, the Colombia/Panama Philatelic Study Group, and Society of Australasian Specialists/Oceania — will hold their annual meetings during NAPEX 2010, while another dozen or so organizations will also meet during the show.

The three-day NAPEX 2010 will also include more than 70 dealers, the U.S. and United Nations postal administrations and Nordica, which represents several Scandinavian countries, and a first day cover cachetmakers bourse. There is a special hotel rate at the Hilton of $130 a night for NAPEX visitors.
