President’s Welcome

On behalf of the officers, directors, and show committee, I welcome you to NAPEX 2015. As ever, we are grateful for the continued support of our returning booth holders. The consistently high caliber of our bourse is one of the main reasons for NAPEX’s reputation as The Nation’s First-Class Stamp Show.

The U.S. Post Office Department first “set up shop” at NAPEX in 1964, more than a half century ago. That excellent relationship is continued today by the McLean Post Office, and we welcome new postmaster Daniel L. Grant to the show for the first time. He and his team have provided support for our show cancels and covers and Friday’s U.S. first day ceremony, for which we are immensely thankful.

The United Nations Postal Administration has once again granted us a first day ceremony. On Friday we will issue six stamps picturing UNESCO World Heritage Sites in South East Asia, a subject of great interest to both the UN’s new stamp chief, Thanawat Amnajanan, and Fairfax County’s sizeable Asian population.

NAPEX will not be held next year, owing to World Stamp Show–NY2016. We will see you in 2017!

DOUGLAS K. LEHMANN
1939-2014

Introduced to stamp collecting in his childhood by an uncle, Doug became an active member of numerous philatelic societies and an avid writer, exhibitor, and renowned expert on Philippine revenue stamps. In 1993, he published Fiscal Stamps of the Philippines: A Catalogue, 1898 to 1946, which remains the foremost reference on the subject. His other collecting interests included Canal Zone, Christmas and Easter Seals, and first day covers of the 1939 New York World’s Fair issue.

He held degrees from the State University of New York College of Forestry, Syracuse University, and George Washington University. Following a long U.S. Army career that included tours in Vietnam, he continued working for the Army as a civilian employee. He retired in 2000.

Doug died at home on September 3, 2014. At the time of his death, he had been a director of NAPEX for more than a quarter century, including two terms as president (1997-1998 and 2001-2004) and show chairman (1999-2001). NAPEX has established an annual special exhibiting award in his name for excellence in revenue or cinderella philately.

World Stamp Show—NY 2016 — Booth 3

The exhibition takes place May 28-June 4, 2016 at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in New York City. A multi-million dollar extravaganza such as this takes hundreds of volunteers to make it happen. More than twenty people are already hard at work. Many, many more will be needed. What can you do or contribute?

NAPEX’s New Grand and Reserve Grand Awards

This year, in celebration of our sixty-fifth anniversary, NAPEX debuts new show grand and reserve grand awards.

For nearly half a century our top show awards have been made of crystal. This tradition started at SIPEX 1966, which was organized largely by the NAPEX committee. In 1992, we began using replicas of the U.S. Capitol dome mouth-blown and hand-cut in Irish crystal by Waterford. Grand award winners received a biscuit barrel, while the single-frame grand and multiframe reserve grands received a paperweight.

The Waterford domes were true capital city status symbols. They were sold only at Washington’s two most prestigious department stores (Woodward & Lothrop and Hecht’s) and a handful of Army PXs in Virginia. There was a time when nearly every politician, lawyer, and lobbyist in town had one on their desk. Eventually, though, Woody’s and Hecht’s both closed and Waterford stopped manufacturing the domes. For several years we bought old stock on the secondary market, but they are now becoming almost impossible to find.

Fortunately we have found worthy replacements in two porcelain presentation bowls manufactured exclusively for the U.S. Capitol Historical Society. Both feature four stages in the architectural development of the iconic Capitol building: the original north (Senate) wing in 1800; after the 1814 Burning of Washington; the copper-clad, wooden Bulfinch dome (1824-1856); and the current cast iron dome finished in 1866. Inside both bowls is an eagle, rendered in 22-karat gold for the reserve grand and 24-karat for the grand. The grand award bowl is footed, and approximately 50% larger than the reserve grand.

Best of all, the new awards have themselves become one of official Washington’s most coveted accessories due to their prominent placement in season two of the Netflix political drama House of Cards (below).

The Washington Stamp Collectors Club (WSCC) was formed on January 1, 2006, through a merger of the Collectors Club of Washington (1927) and the Washington Philatelic Society (1905), to foster philatelic enjoyment and educational benefits to stamp collectors in the Washington, DC area. The WSCC provides a wide variety of activities for the stamp collector, including trading and selling stamps, buying stamps, regular programs of interest to the novice and advanced collector, use of philatelic catalogs and literature, six auctions annually, U.S. and worldwide stamp circuits at each meeting, a newsletter (WASHINGTON CITY DESPATCH) published six times a year, and many other activities. Refreshments are provided at every meeting.

The WSCC meets at 7-9 pm on the first and third Wednesdays of the month at the Christ United Methodist Church, 300 Block of I Street, S.W., Washington, DC. See map for exact location. The meeting location is one block from the Waterfront Metrorail (Green Line) Station. Membership dues are $16 per year. For more information, see the WSCC web site at www.dcstampclub.org.
